What is a Micro-Internship

- Short-term: Projects typically range from 10-40 hours in duration.
- Paid: The average cost to a company is $400 (fixed fee, implying $20/hour).
- Professional: Assignments are similar to those given to interns or new hires.
- Comprehensive: Projects are used in all industries, across all departments (sales, marketing, HR, finance, etc.), and can take place year-round.
- Valued: Micro-Internships provide busy professionals with additional resources (“We should...” or “I shouldn’t...” tasks).
- Flexible: Available year-round as needed, and typically done remote.

Not a replacement for summer internships, co-ops, or full-time hiring.

Everyone Has These Needs

We should...

- Create a blog article on a new topic
- Evaluate our job descriptions
- See what companies have recently raised capital or been sold
- Update our presentation deck

I shouldn't...

- Cleanse our database of prospects
- Draft an email campaign
- Update documents with public information
- Spend time doing basic data entry

Valuable, Impactful Resource

On-demand support

- Tasks that aren't the best use of your time (but are perfect for a college student)
- Projects that are important, but never get done

Give back

- College students value opportunity to demonstrate their skills
- Support students from your college or other organizations

Potential employees

- Assess potential candidates more easily and without wasted time
- Evaluate and / or demonstrate benefits of additional roles

PARKER DEWEY

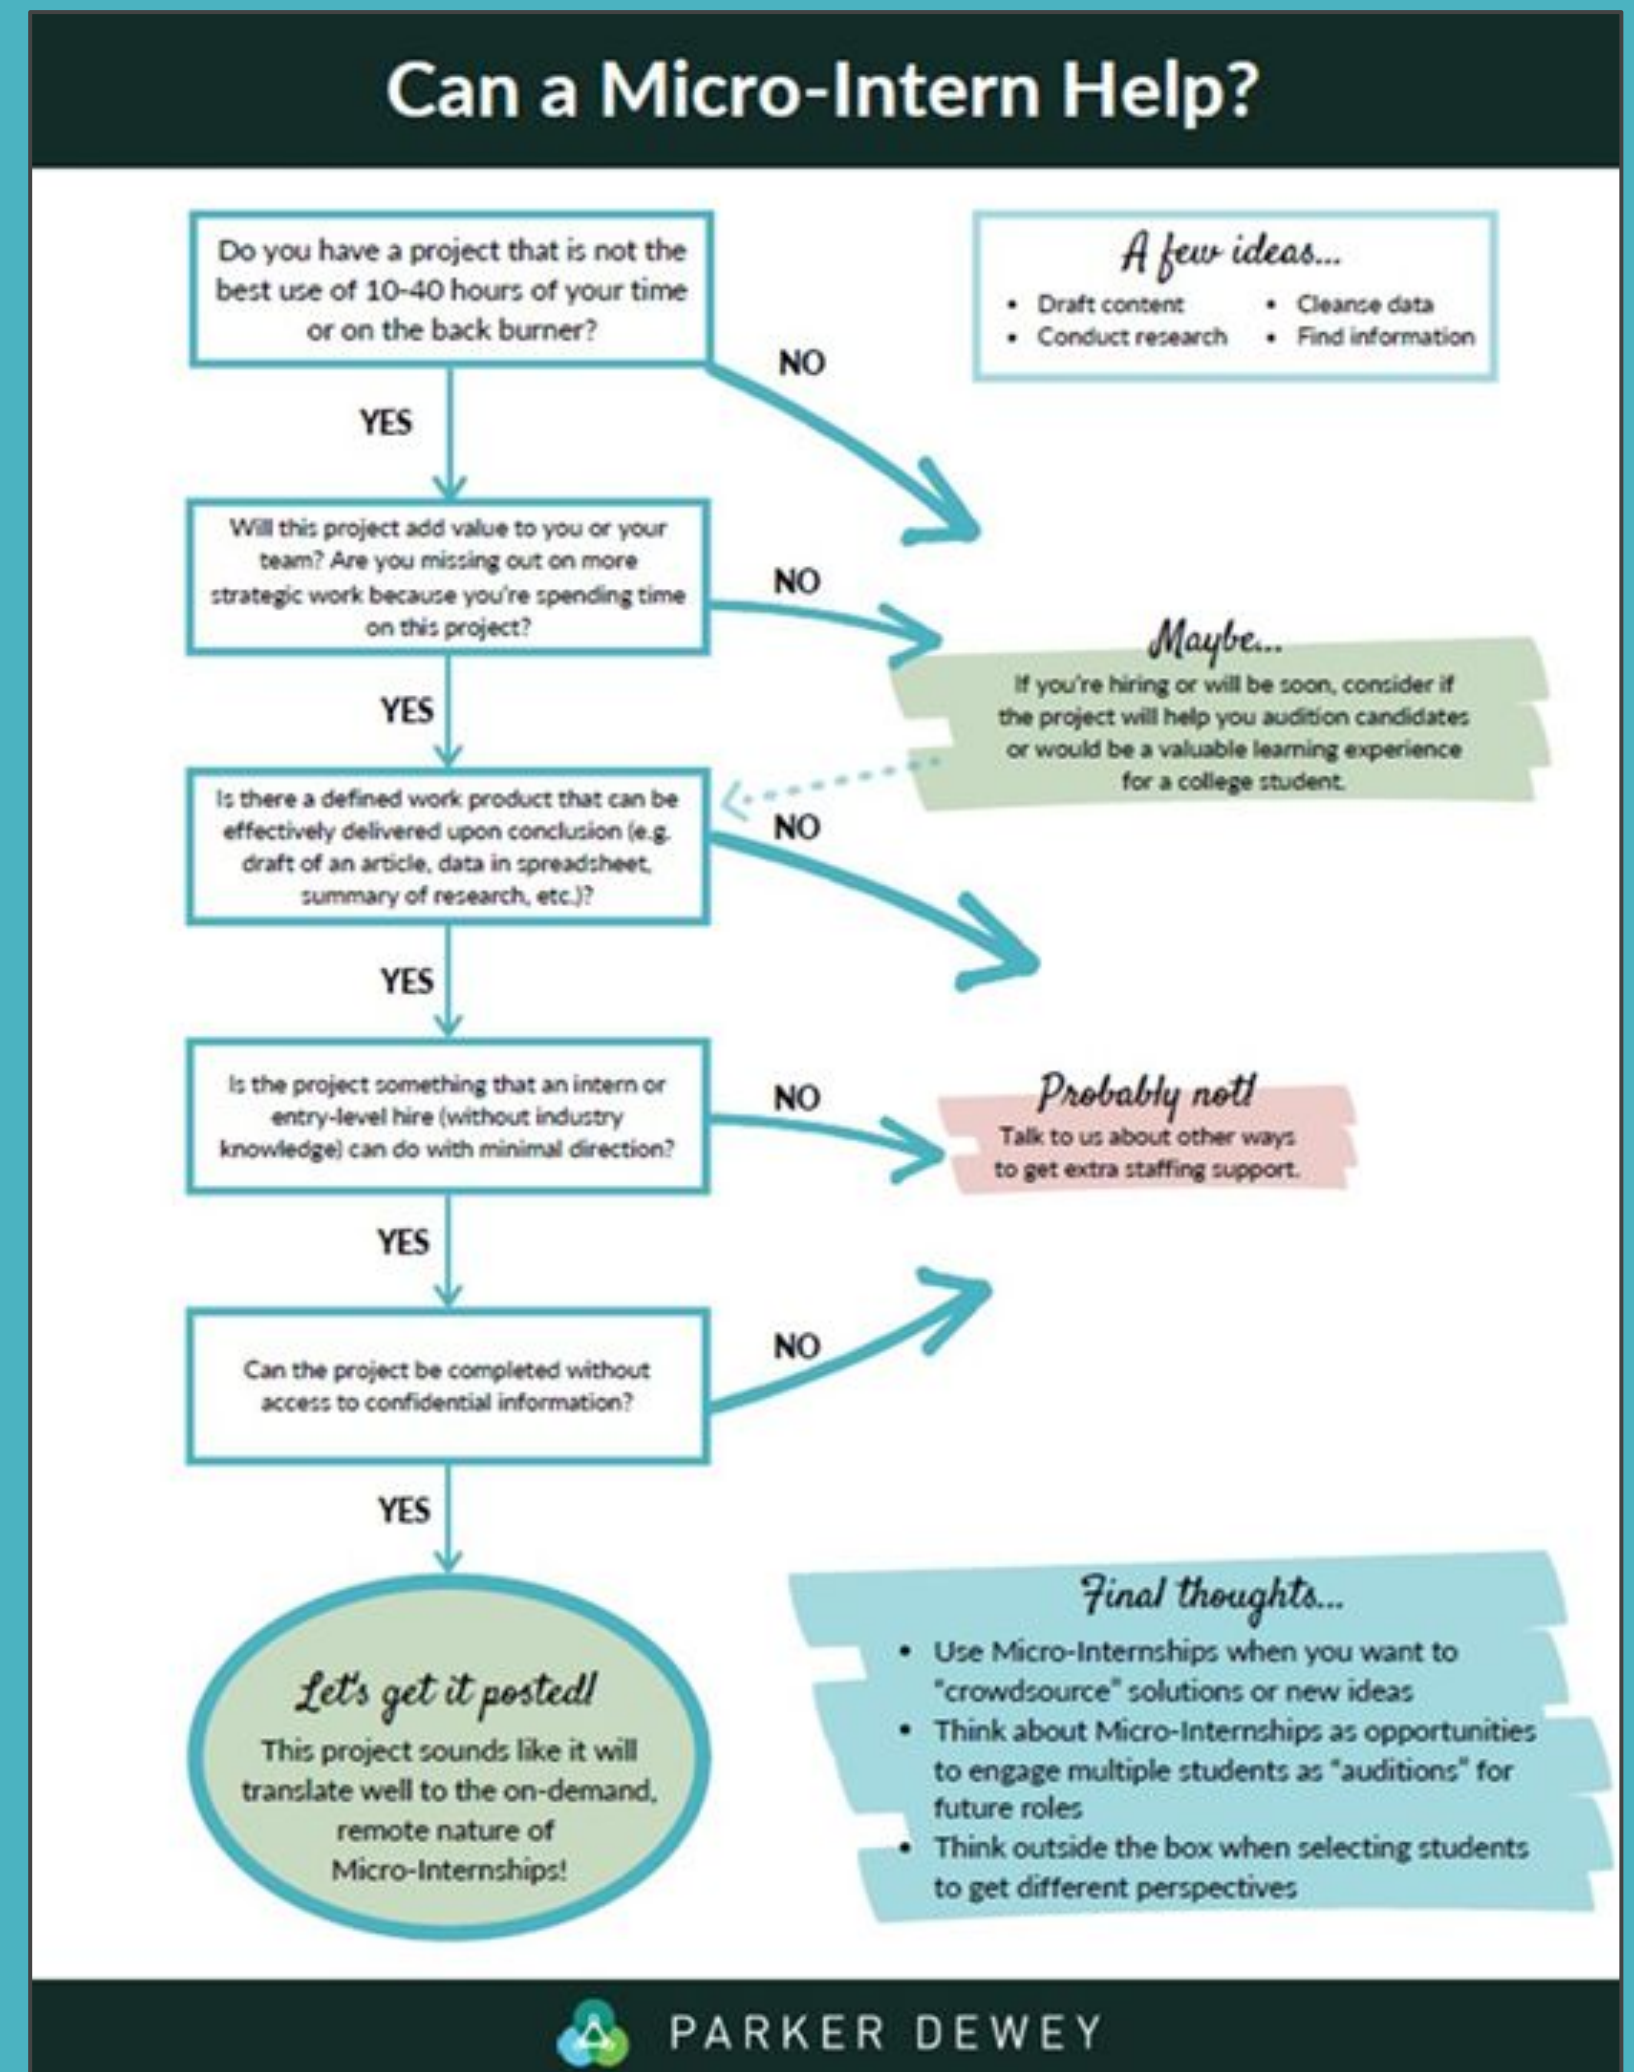

Everyone Has Project Needs

“We should...”

Projects that would be valuable, but there aren't enough hours in the day

“I shouldn't...”

Tasks that important, but not the best use of time for existing employees (but would be perfect for a college student or recent grad)

How It Works

1. Post Your Project

Think about the tasks you want done, but don't have the time for or aren't the best use of time for you or your team.

2. Select Who You Want

You'll only see candidates who have proactively expressed interest in completing your assignment.

3. The Work Gets Done

You can communicate with the student as much or as little as you want and in whatever way is easiest for you.

Our role:

- Assist in posting projects
- Student access and assistance in student selection
- Student onboarding and payroll
- On-demand support

Simple to Post Projects

Micro-Internships can be posted on-demand, as needed by professionals.

We suggest posting a Micro-Internship 24 to 48 hours before the manager wants the project to begin.

Detailed view of Legend Fears' profile. The profile includes a circular profile picture, name, university, major, application date, graduation date, and a 'BACHELORS' button. The application form includes sections for 'WHY DO YOU THINK YOU WOULD BE A GOOD FIT FOR THIS POSITION?', 'PERSONAL STATEMENT', 'EDUCATION', 'EXPERIENCE', and 'SKILLS'. The 'WHY DO YOU THINK YOU WOULD BE A GOOD FIT FOR THIS POSITION?' section contains a short-answer question: 'Last month, I did a two-week internship with the software services company SoftwareOne. During that time, I researched non-profit organizations with whom SoftwareOne did business with in the past, verified their information, as well as identify new contacts from a few companies that SoftwareOne could reach out to. Twice a week, I collaborated with my team through the phone and email, so communicating through multiple channels is something I'm willing to do as well.'

FIVE EASY WAYS TO INTRODUCE MICRO-INTERNSHIPS AT YOUR COMPANY

1

BUSY EMPLOYEES

Think about departments that are trying to do more with less, or are frequently requesting additional resources. Whether their teams were cut or they are trying to keep up with growth, they have projects that need to get done.

2

With over 50% of professionals engaging freelancers, chances are many of your colleagues are as well (even if your company doesn't know about it). Since they already have the need, you can leverage this to complement your recruiting efforts.

4

EMPLOYEE RESOURCE GROUPS

Given their support for diversity, equity, and inclusion, ERG members will be excited to provide these opportunities. Not only can they build authentic relationships with college students, it also helps provide equitable access for potential hires.

UNIVERSITY ALUMNI AND FANS

For employees looking to support their alma mater or other college programs, Micro-Internships provide a great opportunity to engage students. And since Micro-Internships are available for students at every college and university across the country, it's easy to give back.
